

5. Any member may be expelled by the board of directors by a two-thirds vote for non-payment of dues; or, after notice and opportunity for hearing, for conduct unbecoming a member.

6. Any member, upon written request to the board of directors, accompanied by a remittance covering the full amount due on his membership pledge, may resign from the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce.

7. In the event of the death of a member the board of directors shall cancel his membership pledge; in the event of the removal of a member from the vicinity or in consideration of business changes or reverses, the board of directors may cancel his pledge.

Article 11 - Qualifications of Voters

1. Voting shall be by individuals only and no member shall cast more than one vote. Persons to whom memberships have been assigned shall vote as individual members.

2. New members must pay membership dues in advance for at least the current quarter year before being permitted to vote or exercise other privileges of membership; provided that this restriction as to voting shall not apply to any primary held in the year 1921. No member of more than one year's standing shall be entitled to a vote or other privileges of membership until his dues for the preceding year or years have been fully paid.

Article 111 - Election of Directors.

1. (a) Nominations shall be made prior to the election by means of a direct primary. A ballot accompanied by the membership roster shall be mailed to each member and upon it each member entitled to vote may designate as many nominees as there are directors to be elected.

(b) The candidates receiving the highest number of votes in the primary equivalent in number to twice the number of the directors to be elected, shall be declared nominated and their names shall be placed on the official ballot. At the final election candidates receiving the highest number of votes to the number of vacancies to be filled, shall be declared elected.

(c) In the first election (48) candidates shall be nominated and (24) elected, the (12) receiving the highest vote being elected for two years and the remainder for one year or until their successors are elected. In subsequent elections (24) candidates shall be nominated and (12) elected for a term of two years or until their successors are elected.

(d) Each additional vacancy to be filled due to temporary appointment under Article 1V shall add two candidates to the number to be nominated and one to the number to be elected. Said vacancy or vacancies shall be filled for a one year term by the candidate or candidates receiving the lowest number of votes among all the candidates elected.
